A Noble Character
The Earth a Steel Ball
Lady Godiva and Modesty
Rabbits Against Eagles

—BY ARTHUR BRISHANE—

THE DEATH of Dr. Albert A. Michelson is a loss to science and to the world. His life honors his country, his family and the Jewish race. A graduate of Annapolis naval academy, Dr. Michelson returned to the academy to teach science. He was devoted to scientific research for detecting the approach of submarines and contributing to the important discoveries.

Rarely out of his teens, he was among the Annapolis students who measured the speed of light with a home-made apparatus when he discovered that the accepted light measurement was erroneous and pointed the scientific bodies of the world of his correct measurement, 186,000 miles per second.

THIS HE GAVE to the world a correct "cosmic yardstick" by which the distances of fixed stars and outside universes are measured. So many "light-years," so many miles.

The French kept deep underground a meter made of platinum as a permanent record of their measurement of the earth, on which their decimal system of weights, measures and money is based. That meter, kept at even temperature, not contracting or expanding, would always re-establish the metric system.

Michelson said: "I shall give you something more permanent and you will need no meter of platinum."

He measured one of the rays in the spectrum, that of a certain metal, announced the result, which was about the millionth part of an inch, and said: "Multiply the length of that ray by so many millions and you will have your meter as long as the world lasts."

French science verified his measurement and the Nobel prize for physics was given to him.

MICHELSON'S modesty equaled his greatness. Asked, at the Quadrangle club in the University of Chicago, "Do you think I could possibly get any clear idea of modern higher mathematics?" he replied with perfect sincerity: "Well, I think you might, but I cannot."

At that time by mathematical calculation he was computing the rigidity of the earth, which he established at about the same rigidity as though the earth was made of solid steel.

He measured the rise and fall of the tide in a pipe one inch in diameter, more than a mile long. You know, of course, that the tide rises and falls in a small pond, a teacup or an inch pipe, just as it does in the ocean, only the tide is not so high in a teacup.

WITH THE SUN and moon pulling together, the tide rises to a certain maximum height. With the moon above and the sun off to one side, pulling against each other, the tide is lower, because the conflicting pull draws the earth out of shape. And the amount of the earth's distortion enabled Michelson to show that the earth is as hard as a steel ball.

But he did not call that "higher mathematics."

HE WAS A GREAT man, thought of himself, except as he hoped to be useful, thought nothing of money, never considered it, yet Dr. Michelson, one of his students of 34 years ago, says: "I personally believe that the United States has not had, in this generation, a greater man."

MAN GOES TO PEN, BROTHER TO KEEP FAMILY

Louis Rothgang Ordered To Care for Herbert's Wife and Child.

ORDER OF COURT TODAY

Arraigned on Burglary Attempt Charge; Others Sentenced.

Louis Rothgang has been ordered to provide for the wife and child of his brother, Herbert Rothgang, while the latter serves a two-year sentence in the Ohio penitentiary. The order was made this morning by Common Pleas Judge George B. Scofield when the brothers, indicted by the grand jury on a charge of breaking and entering a warehouse, pleaded guilty at arraignment.

Judge Scofield suspended sentencing Louis Rothgang, whom attorneys say did not actually participate in the attempted burglary of the J. D. Wise & Son warehouse, but who was involved in the affair. Clemency was shown him with the provision that he care for his brother's family. Herbert Rothgang, arrested at the scene of the attempted burglary, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Darrel Swearingen, charged with the same offense, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for his participation in the crime. He also pleaded guilty.

Meakley Sentenced
Another of the 12 persons indicted by the grand jury was given a penitentiary sentence. He is G. Meakley, a resident of Indiana, who pleaded guilty Saturday to a charge of issuing checks without funds. A sentence of one year in the Ohio penitentiary was passed on him.

Ralph Lovell, who Saturday pleaded guilty to a charge of receiving stolen property, but who denied a charge of grand larceny in connection with the theft of golf clubs, a club sack and some golf balls from the country club here last spring, was not sentenced by Judge Scofield. After suspending sentencing him, the court ordered him to report monthly to the court bailiff, and to return to his home in Indianapolis and procure work. "Don't ever steal any golf balls," the court warned him. "That offense nowadays is almost as bad as horse stealing used to be," Judge Scofield said.

Zahn Goes To Trial
George Zahn, indicted on a charge of grand larceny in connection with the theft of a radio from Donna Evans last March, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail when he changed a former plea to guilty this morning.

Ronald Burke drew an indeterminate sentence in Mansfield Reformatory when he changed a former plea to guilty this morning.

PHONE BILLS UNDER NEW RATE IN MAILS

Reduction of 25 Cents Made; Discount Period of 10 Days Extended.

Telephone service bills for Marion subscribers of the Ohio Associated Telephone Co. were placed in the mail today, 11 days later than the regular billing date, officials of the company announced today.

The bills bear a stamped message: "This new rate effective pending decision of rate case in federal court." The rates are 25 cents a month less than previous rates to most subscribers.

The discount period of 10 days has been extended from the regular date of the tenth of the month to May 20, officials said.

New lower rates were ordered in effect here May 1 by a three-judge federal court in Cincinnati recently. The rates, still under dispute, are involved in a hearing to be held late this month or early in June before Judge E. M. Wickham of Delaware.

East Suffers Damage in Rain and Hail Storm

By United Press
NEW YORK, May 11.—Farmers and residents in the path of a storm which swept the east counted their loss from damage to crops and buildings in hundreds of thousands of dollars today.

Hail stones two inches in diameter were reported in Windsor, N. C. where a woman met death and a man was seriously injured, while Albany, N. Y., reported wind, rain and lightning which burned buildings, laid bare crops and killed thousands of chickens. Other parts of the east reported a terrific hail and rain storm which broke thousands of windows, battered automobiles and drenched many city residents who had fled to the seashore over the weekend.

RUM RUNNER ARRESTED HERE

Man Minus Shoes Apprehended as Participant in Bucyrus Gun Battle.

COMPANION IS AT LARGE

Prisoner Turned Over to Crawford County Officers After Confessing.

A pair of house slippers led to the arrest here Sunday by Deputy Sheriff Chester Cosgrove of one of two rum runners whom Bucyrus police engaged in a gun battle last Friday night.

The attention of Deputy Cosgrove was attracted by the felt slippers the man was wearing when he entered an automobile near the courthouse Sunday at 3 a. m. When arrested, he gave his name as Jack Finney, 26, of Columbus, after confessed, authorities say, that he was one of the two men who abandoned the liquor-laden automobile south of Bucyrus Friday night.

A pair of shoes found in the abandoned automobile led Deputy Cosgrove to suspect Finney when he saw him wearing the slippers. Finney was turned over to Crawford county authorities Sunday.

Meantime, Delaware and Columbus police continued a search for Finney's companion, who was driven to Columbus by a farmer near Kirkpatrick, shortly after the liquor car had been abandoned. The farmer, who said the man told a "hard luck" story about his automobile breaking down, was given $14 for the trip.

Crawford county authorities are holding the Chrysler touring car, loaded with 140 gallons of liquor, which the men abandoned. The men had been traveling in two cars until a Ford roadster driven by one broke down north of Bucyrus. Its cargo was transferred to the Chrysler and the men proceeded in the one car, Finney told officers.

Joins Hoboes
The Ford could not be located. Authorities believe the man who escaped to Columbus sent someone after the car before Bucyrus police had learned it was used for liquor hauling.

Finney and the other man parted after abandoning the car, he said yesterday. Finney proceeded south on the Sandusky-Columbus pike and joined a band of hoboes to avoid capture. In an attempt to get to Columbus, he came here Sunday and employed a man to drive him to that city.

Finney and his companion were using stolen license plates on the Chrysler, Finney confessed. The plates were changed frequently on various rum running trips, he said.

Local Railroad Detectives Fail in Role as Charmers of 18-Foot Escaped Snake

A course in snake charming may become a part of the training of future Erie detectives. Such a training would have proved of benefit to Captain H. E. Cardiff of the Erie police and two of his men, E. O. DeWees and V. J. Bacon, Saturday night when they attempted to capture an escaped 18-foot python in an express car.

The snake, which was being shipped to a trailer in Brownsville, Tex., escaped from its box near Ashland. Ray Stewart of Jamestown, N. Y., the express messenger, was engaged in unloading the Marion freight near the car dock, and when he turned to pick up

Marion Institution To Observe Hospital Day

Public Invited To Inspect City Medical Center on Day Set Aside for National Observance; Superintendent Lists Improvements Made in Year.

Marion City hospital Tuesday will throw open its doors to the general public as it, with similar institutions throughout the country, invites everyone to pause in his daily routine long enough to take cognizance of hospitals, their advancement, and the tremendous amount of public service they do.

A healthy public interest in hospital work is especially fitting in Marion, officials of the institution say, because hospital work here is a public, tax-supported project, and a unit of the city government.

OUTLINE PLANS FOR HARDING TOMB PROGRAM

President Frelinghuysen Aids in Drawing Tentative Arrangements.

PROGRAM UP TO HOOVER

Association Head Views Memorial for First Time Since Completion.

A conference to consider further the tentative program for the dedication of the Harding memorial June 18, was held by members of the executive committee together with Joseph S. Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, president of the association, at Hotel Harding yesterday. The conference was the first in connection with the program attended by President Frelinghuysen here.

Program Opens at 2 P. M.

The tentative program which opens at 2 p. m. provides for addresses by President Hoover, former President Calvin Coolidge, Governor George White and Mr. Frelinghuysen. The program will be concluded in time to permit President Hoover to reach Columbus to review the state G. A. R. parade at 6 p. m.

Mr. Frelinghuysen carried the tentative program back for the approval of President Hoover. Until this approval is given no definite program will be announced.

The matter of accepting the numerous offers of musical organizations to contribute music for the dedication will also be held in advance until after the program has been passed on by President Hoover. Bands, drum corps and vocal groups have offered their services for the dedication.

Glee Club May Sing

That selections by the Columbus Glee club will be among the musical features of the program is probable. The club took part in many of the appearances of President Harding from the time of his campaign for president to his obsequies and also sang at the funeral of Mrs. Harding.

Following a luncheon yesterday Mr. Frelinghuysen, accompanied by members of the committee, visited the memorial. This was the first time the monument had been viewed by Mr. Frelinghuysen since its completion.

In order to avoid any possible appearance of favoritism the plan of seating visitors, which had been considered, was abandoned when communications received by the committee indicated a great number of delegations will be present from all sections of the country. It would be impossible to seat all and since the building of the memorial was made possible by 1,000,000 contributions from all parts of the nation as well as the country's possessions, it would not be fair to provide seats for a few and not for all, the committee held.

Three persons were overcome by smoke in one building, but no one was injured, and all of the fires were extinguished without serious damage.

In one of the buildings, three separate fires had been started in the basement with waste paper, firemen said. Police were searching the neighborhood for a "firebug."

TO CUT EXPENSES

Hoover Plans Reorganization of War Department as First Step.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 11.—As one step in his efforts to save money for the government, President Hoover intends to reorganize the war department.

Just how far this reorganization will go, or when and how it will become effective, has not been announced, but the tentative decision to make "progressive" changes was reached in the cabinet's week-end conference with officials of that department at his Rapidan, Virginia, camp.

The war department study was the first of a series of the president has begun because of decreasing income and the increasing treasury deficit, which now is around $100,000,000.

Other departments will be studied in coming week-end. Officials are now working on a comprehensive study of the war department in Washington and the next several weeks.

RITES PRIVATE

Funeral of Dr. Michelson Either Tuesday or Wednesday.

By The Associated Press
PASADENA, Calif., May 11.—The body of Dr. Albert A. Michelson, who died here Saturday, will be buried at Mountain View cemetery, Altadena.

late Tuesday or Wednesday under plans subject to change after arrival of two daughters enroute here.

The daughters are Mrs. Philip Maher of Chicago and Mrs. Festus Foster of Dahl green, Va.

Services attended only by Dr. Michelson members of the family and possibly a few close friends will be held at the modest residence where the famed physicist completed work supplementing his prior computation of the speed of light.

At the residence today it was said that "no press notices of Dr. Michelson's funeral are desired."

DEVELOPS NEW MINE SAW HERE

Invention To Be Shown for First Time in Cincinnati This Week.

NO POWDER NECESSARY

Equipment Produced by Marion Concern Headed by J. F. Joy.

A Marion corporation this week presents to the mining world a coal saw, the invention of J. F. Joy of Marion. The saw is an innovation in mining methods, permitting coal to be removed without the use of blasting powder, and without the usual loss in screenings and dust.

The saw, and an accompanying coal loader, will first be seen in Cincinnati Tuesday when the American Mining Congress opens its session May 11-16.

No Powder Needed

Ability of the equipment to take coal out of mines in blocks or in lumps of predetermined sizes, and its efficiency in mining coal without the use of powder is expected to make it popular.

Joy Bros. Inc., a local organization, has been formed to lay plans for the construction of the machinery and to market it. Officers are J. F. Joy, president, C. E. King, vice president, H. R. Young, secretary, Clark W. Wright, treasurer. In addition to the officers, members of the board of directors are M. L. Wilson, H. W. Hane and L. C. Mosley. The organization is a closed corporation, capitalized at $25,000.

No attempt will be made to establish a factory to manufacture either the saw or the loader, as plans of the corporation call for letting out all work to factories already in operation. Present work is being done by the Kelly Foundry & Machine Works at Mt. Clevedon where practically all experimental work and manufacturing has been done.

I thought the biggest hole in the ground was when you was drilling for oil and struck a dry hole. But this is bigger than even that.

It's just the Grand Canyon with a roof over it. Then when you get inside, it's got all the cathedral of the world in it, with half of 'em hanging upside down.

If a "drunk" suddenly woke up in that great hall in there, he would think he had died and gone to heaven, for that's the nearest thing to his imagination of the place.

SUSPECT IN OHIO COUPLE'S DEATH FOUND

Ray Wilt, Sought as Hatchet Slayer, Reported Caught Near Minerva, O.

VICTIMS HIS EMPLOYERS

Bodies of Farmer and Wife Found in Clothes Press at Home.

By The Associated Press
CANTON, O., May 11.—Seventeen-year-old Ray Wilt, wanted here in connection with the hatchet murder of a farmer and his wife, was reported to have been captured this afternoon near Minerva, O.

Wilt was wanted in connection with the deaths of Edward B. Thomas, 46, and his wife, Ethel, 44, for whom he worked as a farm hand. Their bodies, mutilated by a hatchet, was found in a clothes press in their farm home near Waynesburg.

Reports were that Wilt was taken into custody by Stark county deputy sheriffs. The capture was reported shortly after authorities said Wilt was recognized this morning while driving an automobile toward Steubenville.

Resides the boy, who is 17 years old, a small sedan, $100 which had been in Mrs. Thomas' purse, and a radio were missing from the victim's farm home southeast of here, authorities said.

The bodies of the Thomases were found yesterday by John Almsay, a neighbor, who had been asked by the mother of the hunted boy to investigate. The mother, who lives near Waynesburg, not far from here, said her son had not been home for eight days.

The Thomases had been dead about a week, Acting Coroner C. O. Pasadaya said. Thomas, who was paralyzed from the waist down, evaded as he had been hacked to death as he sat in his wheel chair. Mrs. Thomas' body was badly bruised, indicating she had fought desperately. A blood-stained hatchet was found on the kitchen floor.

Neighbors said the boy had worked for the Thomases about four months and might have become infatuated with Mrs. Thomas.

Information obtained from neighbors indicated to county authorities that Wilt did not leave Stark county until after the double murder had been uncovered. He was believed to be driving a sedan, property of the slain couple.

QUEEN RETURNS

Helen Silent in Reported Reconciliation with King Carol

By The Associated Press
BUCHAREST, Rumania, May 11.—Queen Helen is back in Bucharest in a gay and joking mood, but she has failed thus far to give a public testimonial of her reported reconciliation with handsome Carol, Rumania's king and her divorced husband.

Carol, accompanied by their son, Michael, who is recovering from diphtheria, yesterday reviewed detachments of the Rumanian army in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the first Carol's coronation, but Helen did not appear at their side as had been foretold.

A vast crowd, many of whom had come from great distances greeted the father and son with great enthusiasm. There was no explanation of Queen Helen's absence.

Ladies-in-waiting who greeted her upon her return from a brief Belgrade visit said her position had changed in no way.

OUT OF OHIO PEN

"Big Jim" Morton Released to Minnesota Authorities.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., May 11.—James "Big Jim" Morton, notorious Cleveland bank robber and one of the heroes of the Easter Monday fire at the Ohio penitentiary, was released to Minnesota authorities today. Morton, who is wanted on an auto theft charge, will be taken to Minnesota, June 15.

The release granted by the Ohio board of clemency was on the condition that if Morton were not arrested in Minnesota he would be returned to Ohio authorities, and his case again be considered by the parole board.

The clemency board granted 30 paroles out of 131 cases considered. Morton was serving a 15 year sentence for the robbery of the East End Cleveland Banking company in which $25,000 was taken. He had served 11 years of his sentence.

TWO SHOT IN CLEVELAND

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, O., May 11.—Michael Sefran, 24-year-old boy, was shot at the "gun club" here for supplying guns for the "gun club," and Joseph Sefran, 24, was recovering from wounds sustained Saturday night when they stood at a street here. Detectives said the boys were shot by a man who was not identified.

Opening Games Booked for Today in Recreation Ball

QUARTET OF GAMES SCHEDULED IN NO. 2 SUNDAY SCHOOL LOOP

Wesley vs. First Reformed Looms as Best Battle of First Day.

Eight entries in the Marion No. 2 Sunday school recreation baseball league are casting anxious glances at the sky today as the time nears for the opening of competition in the 1931 championship race. The opening quartet of games are booked for today at 6 p. m. The four contests today are the four runners of 12 other opening day games booked in the three other city circuits on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Headlining the list of four contests today will be the Wesley M. E. vs. First Reformed game at the Steam Shovel diamond. Other games will see the Christian No. 1 outfit stacking up against the First Presbyterians at Garfield park, St. Paul opposing Forest Lawn at Lincoln park and United Brethren battling the Christian Seniors at McKinley park.

Each team will play a 14 game schedule of games and the winners of the three other leagues in a Little World's Series at the end of the regular season. Lee Street Presbyterians won the No. 2 league championship in 1930 but are not competing in the circuit this season. The 1930 champs are in the No. 1 Sunday school league this year.

FRENCH BOXERS SEE FIRST BALL GAME

Amateurs Well Informed on Feats of Babe Ruth of Home Run Fame.

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, May 11.—Baseball and Babe Ruth were sources of pleasure for the French amateur boxers who will meet New York and Chicago punchers tomorrow night. Gaby Lerat, plumber and featherweight champion of France, thinks Frenchmen should play baseball and "make beaucoup des francs like el gros Babe Ruth." The Babe, incidentally, is about the only baseball player whose fame has spread to France, and for the reason that he makes more money than the president of the United States, for working about two hours a day, five months of the year.

The French youths saw their first game at Comiskey park Saturday.

No less than 21,000 and possibly as many as 100,000 spectators will watch amateur boxing champions of France battle for international honors against glove champions of New York and Chicago at Soldier field or the Chicago stadium.

Twenty-one thousand reserved seats have been sold for the bouts, and 100,000 more were placed on sale today.

The international affair will be staged by the Chicago Tribune.

CONNALLY SETS PACE FOR HURLERS IN A. A.

Toledo Pitcher Takes Fourth Game in Five Starts; Red Birds Win.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Sergeant George Connally, who as a member of the Chicago White Sox, didn't seem to care much about remaining in the major leagues, is compiling a great record with Toledo of the American Association. Connally won his fourth game in five starts yesterday, holding Minneapolis to five hits and winning the first game of a double-header, 3 to 2. He has pitched all of every game he has started, has two five-hit performances to his credit, and has given only 32 hits in 45 innings an average of less than seven blows a game.

Ross Ryan, another former major league hurler, also pitched five-hit baseball in the second game to give Toledo a 4 to 0 victory.

St. Paul lost a half game of its margin over Columbus took the second game of the series, 4 to 3. Indianapolis and Milwaukee split a pair of slugging matches. The Brewers rallying for six runs in the sixth to win the opener, 15 to 10, with the Indians taking the second one, 13 to 11.

Kansas City and Louisville were rained out.

MAY CINCH TITLE

Illinois Has Chance To Win Big Ten Crown This Week.

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, May 11.—With only two tough contests left on its schedule, both against teams it already has defeated, Illinois appears to be a cinch for the western conference baseball title.

Unless the Illini crack wide open, they should have little difficulty with Ohio State and Wisconsin, leaving its return engagements with Northwestern and Michigan, as the hard assignments.

This week's schedule includes nine games starting today with Iowa at Chicago. Ohio State will host Michigan at Michigan tomorrow with the Wolverines at Iowa and Indiana at Ohio Friday.

Michigan will attempt to break the Illini's string of five straight doubleheaders at Chicago, Indiana will play a second game at Ohio and Wisconsin made North western.

Y-INDUS NINE TO PLAY

The Y-Indus, a new baseball team, will play its first game today at the Pleasanton ship school diamond. It is the first game of the season for the Y-Indus nine. The Y-Indus will play four to book games with a team of nine men in this city and will play with Bud Chase at the Marion Y. M. C. A. on the second game of the publication.

BOSTON TAKES THIRD GAME IN ROW FROM CLEVELAND INDIANS

Tribe Drops to Third Place as Result of Sunday's 9-4 Beating.

By Hugh S. Fillerton, Jr.
Associated Press Staff Writer
Cleveland, May 11.—Within their grasp, the Boston Red Sox are making the game even tougher than expected for the western half of the American league in the current eastern season.

The Red Sox who were expected to provide some easy pickings for the westerners to even things up between the two divisions, have started their trip by winning three straight games from Cleveland, knocking the Indians down into third place in the standing.

The Red Sox won their third straight over Cleveland yesterday by a 9 to 4 count after an uphill battle. Ed Durham gave the Indians the apparently good margin of four runs in the first inning. But he steepled down to pitch eight scoreless innings while Boston tied it up, driving Mel Harder from the mound in the third. Earl Webb put Boston out ahead by hitting his fourth homer of the season off Ray Thomas in the fifth with one man on.

Senators Win 7-4
Washington added another triumph for the east yesterday, taking a 12 inning battle from the Detroit Tigers 7 to 4 to make it six victories for the league's eastern clubs in seven inter-sectional games. The Senators likewise had to fight an uphill struggle, scoring a run in the ninth to tie the count at 4-4, but George Lingo hit a bad spot in the twelfth and Washington piled three singles on top of a pair of walks to bring in three runs.

Safely settled in first place, the New York Yankees were rained out in Chicago and a proposed double header at St. Louis between the Browns and the Philadelphia Athletics gave way to the weather.

The tale of the National league's games was bound up in zig zag Pittsburges of the New York Giants and Larry French of Pittsburgh and Pittsburges was most of it. The giant hurler was content with pitching a four hit shutout against the Chicago Cubs, refusing even to give a walk, but when his rival, Pat Malone, made the mistake of passing Frank Hogan to fill the bases and get at a pitcher, Fitz replied by slamming the first pitch into the stands for a home run that netted four of the runs in a 5-0 victory.

Larry French, the twenty-third left handed pitcher to face Brooklyn this season, served out another dose of the unpleasant medicine the Robins have been taking regularly from southpaws. He gave eight hits but kept them well scattered until the ninth inning, then fanned Frank O'Doul with the tying runs on second and third. The Pirates made good use of their seven blows off Babe Phelps to gain a 6-1 victory in the first game of their eastern trip.

Phelps halted a double header at Boston between the Braves and the Cincinnati Reds while St. Louis and the Phillies had an open date.

BOZINIS-KILONIS TO MEET IN MAT SHOW

Bitter Battle Likely as Greek Meets Greek on Shovel Card.

Additional bracing are being put in place on the leg at the Steam shovel gym in preparation for the "Gentle John" Kilonis-Nick Bozinis mat battle tonight.

Matching two of the roughest gentlemen of the wrestling game the main go of tonight's card is expected to be the most exciting of the season. It will be loaded with dynamite.

Kilonis will return to the Marion ring after an absence of more than a year. Bozinis, a comparatively newcomer, has been wrestling locally the last couple weeks. "Gentle John" has built his reputation on the hate of mat followers. He is always out to win and how. Bozinis is the same type and packs a powerful punch in his right.

Plenty of action will be seen in the semi-final, too. It will be more of a scientific match with Doug Macelle meeting Ray Carpenter. These two boys will go an hour or until one of them grabs off two falls. This bout falls into the class of a main-go affair.

An unusually large crowd is expected to witness the matches. The advance ticket sale has been unusually heavy. In addition to the two main go matches, two local men will be matched in the preliminary.

Hemorrhoids Go Quick

All Pile Matters Ended Without Cutting or Suffering
Itching bleeding protruding piles go quickly and don't come back. If you remove the cause. Bad blood circulation in the hemorrhoidal veins causes piles by making the affected parts weak flabby, almost dead. Salves and cutting fail because only an internal medicine can actually correct these conditions. Dr. J. S. Leonard discovered a real internal Pile remedy. After prescribing it for 1000 patients with SUCCESS Dr. Leonard & Co. put out one bottle of HEM-ROID. Tablets melt your Pile misery or misery back—Adv.

HUNGER HIKERS IN COLUMBUS

Governor Announces He Will Receive Committee Tuesday.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., May 11 — Governor George White announced today that he would receive a committee representing the Ohio "hunger hikers" at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday. The marchers, who reached here late yesterday from various parts of the state, were camped at the state fairgrounds.

Leaders of the marchers said they would announce a definite program Tuesday morning, and that after the meeting with Governor White they will probably see members of the legislature. They will ask that a law be passed establishing unemployment insurance.

The marchers were resting their tired feet today. They planned no demonstration until Tuesday. Escorted by police, sheriff's deputies and members of the American Legion, the hikers reached the north side of the capital late yesterday after entering the city from two directions. The main crowd of approximately 130, representing northern cities, came from Delaware and the Cincinnati delegation of about 50 walked from London. Both processions were orderly.

Joining at the capital, the two groups marched to the state fairgrounds where they will be permitted to sleep in the coliseum during their stay here. A mass meeting was held at the fairgrounds last night. Leaders announced a committee would be named to present a petition for unemployment relief and old age insurance to the state officials.

Arrive Singing
Several hundred spectators gathered at the statehouse as the marchers arrived singing "Solidarity Forever." Six of the hikers collapsed and the orators charged that the victims were exhausted from lack of rest, asserting that London officials refused to allow them to enter the city to seek proper quarters. The Cincinnati delegates, forced to walk the 26 miles from London, when their truck broke down, also had not eaten since breakfast.

Two men who said they belonged to the southern group were arrested for begging on the outskirts of Columbus, but otherwise the police made no effort to interfere with the marchers. Rose Clark of Cleveland, young leader of the hikers, described the officers as "stupid" and called the officials "protectors" to protect the capitalist class from us.

This and other remarks by the young woman speaker, a center of interest with her cheerful smile and bright green beret, caused ripples of laughter among the spectators.

Assaults Officials
Telling of dealings with officials in various cities, Miss Clark shouted: "Authorities are afraid of us. The hickory sticks of the capitalists are trying to drown out our cries of hunger. But we are not frightened. Don't starve comrades, fight!"

Later she called for a collection and then gave the platform to other speakers. One orator, discussing possible failure of the marchers' purpose, said "the next time it won't be a handful of workers tramping to Ohio's capital—it will be the whole working class on the march against the capitalist bosses."

Undergoes Operation — Mrs. Daisy Parish of 355 Nye street underwent a minor operation this morning at City hospital.

Improves — John Kelly of Marion, who underwent an abdominal operation Saturday at City hospital is reported improving.

To Speak Here — Mrs. Ruth K. Stevens of Findlay, state W. C. T. U. worker, will speak at a meeting of Florence Richard W. C. T. U. Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Elizabeth Houser of 326 Henry street.

Win Awards — Mrs. Elva Bryant and Nick Myers won honors at cards at a weekly party given by Druids lodge Saturday night in the lodge rooms. Mrs. Emma Lewis, Mrs. Bryant, E. W. Drake and Harry Hoch won door awards.

Vaughan Rites — Funeral services for James H. Vaughan, Marion's oldest active printer who died Wednesday night, were held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. at the home at 323 North State street. Dr. C. E. Tuley, pastor of Epworth M. E. church, officiated. Interment was made in Marion cemetery.

Last Rites — Last rites for Samuel Schwaderer of Marion R. F. D. No. 6 were held Saturday at 1:45 p. m. at the home and at 2:30 p. m. at the Prospect Street M. E. church. Rev. Herbert Jones, pastor of the Zion M. E. church of Richland township, was assisted by Rev. Karl W. Patow, pastor of the Marion church. Burial was made in Marion cemetery.

Services Today — Funeral services for Mrs. Nellie Rubins of 295 Hane avenue who died Saturday morning were held today at 2 p. m. at the home and at 2:30 at Central Disciples of Christ church with Rev. James O. Dodd, pastor, in charge. Interment was made in Marion cemetery.

Severus Services — Funeral services for Mrs. Almira S. Severus who made her home with her children in Marion were held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the M. H. Gunder funeral home on West Center street. Mrs. Severus died Thursday in a Columbus hospital. Rev. Fitch was in charge of the services which were followed by burial in Marion cemetery.

Amulance Drives — The W. C. Boyd invalid car made the following drives over the week-end: Mrs. C. E. Smith and infant daughter from City hospital to their home on Mt. Vernon avenue, Saturday afternoon; Mrs. Frank Kepler of the Prospect Pike to City hospital yesterday morning for treatment.

Rose Clark of Cleveland, young leader of the hikers, described the officers as "stupid" and called the officials "protectors" to protect the capitalist class from us.

This and other remarks by the young woman speaker, a center of interest with her cheerful smile and bright green beret, caused ripples of laughter among the spectators.

Assaults Officials
Telling of dealings with officials in various cities, Miss Clark shouted: "Authorities are afraid of us. The hickory sticks of the capitalists are trying to drown out our cries of hunger. But we are not frightened. Don't starve comrades, fight!"

Later she called for a collection and then gave the platform to other speakers. One orator, discussing possible failure of the marchers' purpose, said "the next time it won't be a handful of workers tramping to Ohio's capital—it will be the whole working class on the march against the capitalist bosses."

MISS OLLIE M. RILEY DIES AT HOME HERE

Bookkeeper at Isaly Dairy Co. Claimed After Short Illness.

Miss Ollie M. Riley, 42, died of a three-days illness of uremia poisoning today at 2:15 a. m. at her home at 124 Carhart street. Miss Riley, for the last six years bookkeeper for the Isaly Dairy Co., was auditor of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs and was a charter member of the Business Women's club.

Miss Riley was born in Marion county June 5, 1877, to James B. and Mary Ellen Conley Riley, both natives of the county. Her father died in 1902 and her mother in 1915. She had no brothers or sisters.

She leaves two uncles, Charles H. Conley and Edmund Conley and an aunt, Miss Anna Conley of near Marion. Mrs. Charles H. Elliott of 186 1/2 East Center street made her home with Miss Riley until she was married.

Miss Riley attended First Presbyterian church. Before joining the offices of the Isaly Dairy Co., she was a bookkeeper with the Bindley Grocery Co.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Schaff-Wagoner funeral home on East Center street. Rev. H. L. Olmsted, pastor of First Presbyterian church, will officiate. Interment will be made in Marion cemetery. Friends may call on the body at the funeral home until service time.

BIRTHS
Announcement was made today of the birth of a daughter, Mildred Margaret, to Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kaufman of the Richmond Pike, May 4.

KEEP KISSABLE

... WITH OLD GOLDS

OLD GOLDS were created to give you THROAT-EASE... as well as a more delightful tasting cigarette. But the makers also considered your breath, your lips, your teeth, as well as your THROAT.

They created a pure-tobacco cigarette ... free of coriander and other greasy artificial flavorings* that burn into clinging, staining, breath-tainting vapors.

To avoid unpleasant aftermaths, smoke pure-tobacco OLD GOLDS. Their clean, sun-ripened, natural-flavored tobaccos will be like honey to your THROAT. And they leave no objectionable odors either on your breath or clothing, or in the room.

HERE'S THE PROOF*

Open up a pack of Old Golds and smell the tobacco. Do the same with any other cigarette. Judge for yourself which has the natural, pleasant, all-tobacco aroma. It's a favor to your family and friends, as well as to yourself, to smoke NATURAL-FLAVORED, pure-tobacco OLD GOLDS.

39 SERV-U-WEL STORES JOIN IN CELEBRATION

INDEPENDENCE KEPT
BY GROUP MEMBERS

Grocers in Organization Retain Identity as Individual Units; Pass Through Third Successful Year; Buyer and Merchants Reap Many Benefits.

Serv-U-Wel is an association of grocers designed to give its members a number of the desirable features of a cooperative organization without the disadvantages of a cooperative grocer. Today Serv-U-Wel in Marion is three years old with a record of successful operation throughout its entire history.

Serv-U-Wel association was formed in Marion because grocers found it as the most satisfactory way of handling a number of associations of independent merchants. The association in Marion has no connection with 10 similar organizations under the same name in other parts of the state, other than its use of the trademarked name.

750 in State
Seven hundred and fifty grocers in the state today are operating under the Serv-U-Wel name. The heads of the local organization say. Comments on the organization at state and national meetings of the Retail Grocers association show that Serv-U-Wel stores stand out in the regard of retailers and wholesalers all over the state. The widespread success with which the association has operated here proves it is popular with its customers.

The Serv-U-Wel system was adopted by Marion grocers three years ago when the need was felt for an organization or association which would bind them into a cooperative group, and yet let each remain independent.

Serv-U-Wel superseded the Marion Retail Grocers' association, which gradually lost footing here. The organization was completed at a meeting of 42 grocers in the rooms of the Marion Credit Bldg. three years ago, with R. A. Reidenbaugh as president, George A. Smith was elected secretary and D. J. Lawler was named treasurer. The Serv-U-Wel plan was adopted after a committee consisting of George A. Smith, R. A. Reidenbaugh, H. L. Hamilton and M. W. Kline had visited Zanesville, where the plan was originated by William Madden.

Cooperate on Advertising
The prime objective of the organization is cooperative advertising. By pooling advertising and offering the same specials simultaneously, members of the organization have been able to finance a sizeable and efficient advertising campaign at a negligible cost to each individual merchant.

John Abbott was the first full-time secretary of the group. He still continues as nominal secretary, although his duties have been largely taken over by Arthur S. Zachman, who is employed full time as secretary-manager.

Since its inception, the association has offered more advantages than cooperative advertising alone. Attractive special prices have been obtained through the pooling of orders, although the association does not function as a buying organization.

Members of Other Groups
On joining the local organization, grocers also gain membership in the Ohio and National Retail Grocers associations, reaping the benefits of these two active organizations at no extra cost. Each member receives a subscription to the Buckeye Grocer, official organ of the Ohio association.

The Serv-U-Wel, officials of the organization say, is preferable to a number of alliances or associations for independent grocers, as it entails no obligations other than a small monthly membership fee and payment of one dollar each year for use of the copyrighted name. Many independent grocers' associations, the officials say, are financed by wholesalers who compel merchants to sign unfair contracts to hold membership, and commercialize on the plan in other ways.

Working as a unit, the association of grocers has been able to voice protest against certain policies of manufacturers of foods in cases where unsatisfactory practices have been revealed.

Parade High Spot of Observation; Special Values Offered.

Marion's 39 Serv-U-Wel grocers are making the week of the third anniversary of their organization a memorable event in Marion. A jubilant demonstration Tuesday night will mark the passing of the thirty-sixth month of Serv-U-Wel service in this city.

Serv-U-Wel merchants have pledged themselves to share the benefits of their successful operation with all Marion by offering special values in groceries throughout the week. All stores in the service have been decorated, brightened up and loaded with specials for the occasion.

The climax of the week, so far as the public is concerned, will be reached Tuesday night when all Serv-U-Wel grocers, clerks and employees, together with visiting merchants from other cities and representatives of concerns with whom the grocers deal, will parade through Marion's business section. Hundreds of samples will be thrown to the crowds, and tickets entitling the bearer to a basket of groceries will be distributed from the floats.

Bands, dozens of attractive floats, and paraders on foot will participate.

Frank McDaniel is general chairman in charge of the parade. He is assisted by the music committee composed of A. W. Somerlot, chairman, and M. W. Kline, and the publicity committee consisting of R. A. Reidenbaugh, chairman, John H. Abbott and George A. Smith.

After the parade, the Serv-U-Wel grocers will convene at the Bindley Grocery Co. on North State street for a stag party. D. J. Lawler, George Andres and E. J. Schuler are a committee in charge of arrangements for this party.

A special section of The Star, of which this story is a part, is another means taken by the Serv-U-Wel stores to thank Marion for its patronage that has made the successful operation of their service here possible.

Big Parade Tomorrow Night

Special Feature

Lucille Aumann, head of the Marion Riding Club which is located at the Marion Fairgrounds will lead the parade with a six-horse formation.

These horses were trained and gaited by Miss Auman herself. She will ride her favorite, "Red Bird," in the center.

Line of March

Parade will form on the Boulevard and March East on Center to Baker—South on Baker to Church and West on Church to the Harding High School.

Lois Bennett will be guest soloist on WTAM at 8:30 tonight when a farewell program will be given by the group of singers who accompanied Will Rogers on his tour of the drought-stricken area of the south.

Archer Gibson To Inaugurate Recital Series

Archer Gibson, one of the foremost American organists, will inaugurate a series of classical recitals over the NBC-WFAP network at 6:30 p. m., the program lasting for a half-hour.

A second series of programs, will come over the NBC-WFAP hook-up tomorrow night at 10:30. These programs will be weekly features of the national broadcasting company.

"Indigo Moon," the first concert ever composed for the ukulele and full orchestra, will be broadcast by Hugo Mariani's Symphonic Rhythm Makers on the NBC-WFAP hook-up tonight, with Don Becker, popular WLW entertainer, playing the solo ukulele. Becker is the composer.

IT'S A FACT—
 Internationalism of music holds a greater meaning for Josef Kestner, orchestra conductor, than it does to many musicians. Kestner was born in Bavaria, studied French, German, Spanish, Russian and Italian composers under French and German instructors, and has members of 13 different nationalities and races in his orchestra.

Tonight's broadcast of the orchestra under the direction of Frank Black, features Lois Bennett as guest soloist. The male quartet heard on this program will sing a farewell program tonight for on May 15 they sail on an European tour. This group of singers accompanied Will Rogers recently on his tour of the drought-stricken area of the south. WTAM carries this program at 8:30 p. m.

Urbana Man Ranks as Weather Profit
 By The Associated Press
 URBANA, O., May 11—C. C. Inskip, of Urbana, is such an accurate weather forecaster that vegetable growers of the region keep in close touch with him. He predicted the recent frost. He now says there will be a frost on May 28. He says there is a frost in May for every fog in February. The forecasts correspond closely with the dates of February fogs.

The Stars Say—

For Tuesday, May 12

SIGNS of great enterprises, impetus and progress are noted in this day's sidereal operations. Industry, employment, new projects and unusual adventures and undertakings are under high stimulus and should reach definite progress with security of position. This may involve unexpected change or travel, but all signs point to successful achievement and substantial fortunes. Personal affiliations may unfold some unforeseen situations, probably sensational or unusual.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of splendid energy and progress, with the energies and faculties under high stimuli for success and sound foundations, both in old and new undertakings. Chance may be involved and the purely personal relations may have some spectacular developments. A child born on this day may be bold, energetic, resourceful, original and independent. It should reach solid place through these qualities and its own initiative and industry.

MAKE SHORT RUN

Firemen Dash Out of Station, Then Return to Fight Blaze

By The Associated Press
 BELLEFONTAINE, O., May 11—It is not uncommon for a flaming automobile to be driven up to a fire station, but when fire department trucks rush from their building, abruptly halt, and the fire ladders reenter the station carrying extinguishers and hose, observers were a bit puzzled.

That's just what happened recently to the department here. Fireman Mac Hildreth noticed a brown mark on a wall of the fire station. He touched the spot and found it hot. The trucks were taken from the building and the firemen reentered and put out a fire believed to have started when gas leaking from a pipe, was ignited.

Many years ago the fire station here was destroyed by fire.

OHIO WOOL PRICES RUNNING LOWER

Average About Four Cents Last Year, Research Director Reports.

By The Associated Press
 COLUMBUS, O., May 11—Wool prices are averaging about four cents under last year, with coarse grades showing a greater decline than the finer grades. Carl J. West, research director of the Ohio Farm Research Station, reports declines at London wool sales. He added, however, that the market during the past year was not as good as it was in 1929.

The London price at Boston for Ohio wools on a grease basis is about 20 cents, the director said. A year ago top prices ranged from 22 to 24 cents. Two years ago the top was 45 cents.

Wool prices have become somewhat depressed in wools. Two years ago the coarse wools were about a pound higher than the fine wools. This condition was due to the fact that fine wools have been considered as high priced. Fine wools are bringing the same price at the present time, so that the traditional relations between fine and coarse wools are being restored. However, there is little of any difference at the present time between the fine wools and the next coarser grade.

Carpet wools are in somewhat better market position than a month ago though prices are averaging seven cents under a year ago.

Wool prices seem to be unusually sensitive this year to demands in the foreign markets. The London wool sale which opened on April 28 led to a decline of from one to two cents in our market.

Stewart and Stacey, of Auburn, have each leaped six feet 14 inches this season in the high jump. They will compete at the southern conference meet at Birmingham.

To Clean Silver Without Rubbing
 Add one teaspoonful of Climalene to 2 qts. of water in an aluminum pan. Immerse the silver in the pan of water a few minutes, bring it to a boil. Then rinse silver in water and dry. That is all. All tarnish disappears. Even the most intricate and highly embossed silver patterns are perfectly cleaned.

To Avoid Faded Washings
 Use 2 tablespoonfuls of Climalene and 1/4 the usual amount of soap. Clothes emerge spotless, utterly without fading. Soap fade and soap eat are ended in a way. In recent tests, men's blue shirts were washed 75 times, without noticeable fade; sheerest French hosiery, times and more—to prove the blueness of this way.

Why It Cleans
 Climalene instantly takes all the hardness out of Lake water, medium water, and hard water. Makes it and gentle as rain water. So soft it works with 1/2 the soap you now use. At the same time, due to certain cleansing agents, it instantly dissolves all grease, dirt and grime, and thus your working time 3/4 or more in washing, cleaning and in the dishes.

Two Who Braved Arctic Together Join for Round-Trip Ocean Flight

By The Associated Press
BOSTON, Mass. — Plans for a round-trip flight over the Atlantic unite two men whose friendship grew on an adventure in the Arctic.

Commander Donald B. MacMillan, veteran explorer of Greenland and Charles F. Rocheville, former navy enlisted man, are now preparing for a round-trip flight from Boston to London and return.

They propose to fly back to Boston from London and London from Boston, charting their way of Labrador, Greenland and the Faroe Islands.

Their friendship dates back to 1927 when MacMillan led his ninth expedition into northland wastes. Rocheville was one of three men who accompanied him.

Rocheville, who will pilot, is 36, born in Colorado Springs, Colo., and now living in California. He holds a federal transport license and has more than 4,000 hours of flying time to his credit.

Well-built, he weighs 187 pounds and stands five feet, eight and one-half inches. He has blue eyes and dark brown hair. His early experience with aviation came during his service during enlistments during from 1914 through 1927.

Thoroughly trained as a pilot, he has been an aircraft designing engineer.

MacMillan, gray-haired explorer, 56, his first visit to the Arctic was made in 1905-1909 with the Peary expedition and he has made numerous scientific trips into the north.

Familiar with Labrador and the weather along the north Atlantic, he long has entertained the theory that Nungesser and Gail may have crashed in the barren land and that traces of their venture may still remain.

A fast monoplane, a Lockheed Vega, will be used. It is the same make as the one chosen by Ruth Nicholas for a solo flight over the north Atlantic and the planes to be used by John Henry Mears and James Breesse and Wiley Post and Harold Gatty in projected round-the-world flights.

HOSTESS TO CLASS

Mrs. Harold Schultz Entertains Moral Church Group.

MORRAL, May 11.—The Lotus class of the M. E. Sunday school met at the home of Mrs. Harold Schultz Friday afternoon. Mrs. D. W. Mahaffey, president, had charge of the meeting. Twenty-three members and 26 guests were present. Lunch was served by the hostess. A program was given on "Mother's Day." "History and Origin of Mother's Day" was given by Mrs. Harold Schultz; duet, Mrs. H. R. Vroman and Mrs. Kenneth Richardson; reading, Mrs. Jess Granier; musical reading, Mrs. J. E. Parker; trio, Mrs. W. A. Stewart, Mrs. H. R. Vroman and Mrs. Kenneth Richardson; reading, Mrs. William Howe; reading, Mrs. O. G. Morral; trio, Mrs. W. A. Stewart, Mrs. H. R. Vroman and Mrs. Kenneth Richardson.

Guests were: Mrs. Wade Wright, Mrs. Martin Scott, Mrs. Samuel McWhorter, Mrs. Albert Carpenter, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Anna Cline, Mrs. Bertha Moore, Mrs. Ralph Lucas, Mrs. O. A. Sindlinger, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Oathouse, Mrs. H. A. Martin, Mrs. A. C. Brown of Meeker, Mrs. Ethel Wise of LaRue, Mrs. Bert Richardson, Mrs. Mae Mason, Mrs. Alva DeRoche, Mrs. Edd Heller, Mrs. Tuis, Mrs. Frances, Mrs. A. J. Loudenslager, Mrs. J. H. Bardon, Mrs. Mary Baker and Mrs. Asa McIntire.

TO HOLD BANQUET

Epworth M. E. General Aid Plans Mother, Daughter, Dinner

Plans were completed for the Mother-daughter banquet to be held Friday at the church, at the home of the General Aid society of Epworth M. E. church yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. John H. Clark conducted the devotional service and the program was presented by Circle No. 1. Mrs. F. A. Boyer entertained with a piano solo, "A Mother's Love" and Mrs. C. E. Liven contributed three readings, "I Was on Yonder Hill," "The Forgotten Pair" and "Little Girl's Song." A vocal solo, "Mother's Love" was sung by Mrs. Guy Baker and Mrs. W. A. Gruber gave readings "Darby and Joan." A vocal solo, "I Shall Know Him," by Mrs. J. B. Ellis closed the program. Refreshments were served to members of Circle No. 4.

Mother's Day Program Given at Wyandot

WYANDOT, May 11.—At the home of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school yesterday morning a program in honor of Mother's Day was given. Those taking part were: Willard Swisher, Janet and Dorothy Winch, Paul Chis, Geneva Bledsoe and Betty Jure.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society will hold an all day meeting Wednesday, May 13, at the home of Mrs. F. L. Jure.

Government by the people is no great success; but it works better than the other methods.

Commander Donald B. MacMillan (right) and Charles F. Rocheville, former navy enlisted man, who once braved the arctic together, are now preparing for a round-trip flight from Boston to London and return.

Flashes of Life

By The Associated Press.
PURCHASE, N. Y. — Mary Pickford has been visiting the king and queen of Siam. Her motor was stopped at the gates of Ophir Hall and she was asked for Credentials. "My face is my only card of identification," she said. It was enough.

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Emma L. Degraw of Washington, one of 51 persons who signed the constitution of the American Red Cross 50 years ago, will have a position of honor at the Golden Jubilee Banquet, May 21. One of her recollections of early meetings is that Clara Barton sent her into the dining room to see that everything was all right and she collided with a waiter who spilled cream on her beautiful red gown.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal. — George Von Elm is in the movies. He was signed up for a humorous feature, one that will not aim to instruct in how to make golf shots.

NEW YORK — Much to his surprise Henry Ford is getting two freight cars full of fine old carriages and harness for nothing. Mr. and Mrs. Elliphalet Mitchell, who are in their seventies, yielded to the auto only a few years ago. They decided to give the relics of the horse era to Ford because he is responsible for the lack of use.

NEW YORK — There's a new word in the English language.

OHIOANS You Should Know

This is one of a series of personality sketches of Ohioans engaged in important activities. The articles, prepared by The Associated Press, will appear from time to time in The Star.

THOMAS C. JENKINS regards the motto "Keep Them Busy and They'll Keep Out of Trouble" as the inspiration for his success as superintendent of the state reformatory at Mansfield. He has applied that slogan throughout his 12 years as head of the institution, and the records of the reformatory bear testimony to the wisdom of such a policy. Jenkins, like others who have been successful as heads of penal institutions, started out in life teaching school. He saw few opportunities for success in the small town where he spent his boyhood. He peered over the horizon and saw the outside world with chances for success that, through the very nature of things, could not be found in his home town. So he stepped over the edge. He went to teach the seventh and eighth grades at Malta, near McConnellsville. A short step to be sure, but in the right direction.

THEN, at the age of 26, he saw his chance. Through the efforts of Elmer Dover, political figure and secretary to the late Mark Hanna, Jenkins went to the Mansfield reformatory as a teacher. He taught the seventh and eighth grades, but his pupils were full-grown men instead of boys and girls. He made good. Then, in June, 1907, he became superintendent of schools. Later he became one of three field officers, and worked with Preston E. Thomas, now warden of the state penitentiary.

One day he was summoned from the field and informed that he had been selected for the job of assistant superintendent of the institution. The superintendent had been deprived of his assistant, H. U. Hastings, through the latter's transfer to the Boys Industrial school at Lancaster. That was in 1913. Dr. Leonard, the superintendent, became ill in 1918, and died a short time later. Jenkins succeeded him Aug. 1, 1918.

He is proud of his record as head of the reformatory. He prides himself on having, in his years at the institution, resorted to his Thomas C. Jenkins, United States reformatory at Mansfield, kept Washington informed as to reformatory developments in that country and looked out for American interests.

RUMFORD

THE WHOLESOME

BAKING POWDER

THE PERFECT
LEAVENER

OF TRUE
DIETARY VALUE

You will enjoy the appetizing lightness and attractive texture of the biscuits and hot breads made with Rumford.

These superior results are due to the perfectly proportioned leavening action of this ideal all-phosphate baking powder.

Rumford is scientifically prepared so that two-thirds of its leavening action takes place in the mixing and one-third takes place in the oven.

This is the perfect proportion for obtaining the best results, and is why Rumford is called the Two-to-One leavener.

Rumford Baking Powder is not merely a leavener. It has true dietary value. Its base consists of those phosphates so NEEDED by the human body.

It is the only baking powder having national distribution of which no criticism has ever been leveled on account of any ingredient it contains.

These phosphates (sodium and calcium) in Rumford play a vital part in up-building bones and nerve tissue, especially in children. Rumford is so rich in these phosphates that two biscuits made with Rumford contain more of these nutritious mineral salts than one large glass of milk.

It takes fifty quarts of milk to equal the phosphate content of a one pound can of Rumford!

STUDENTS SPEND DAY IN COLUMBUS

Casie Torch Club Members Visit Capital City on Tour.

The first high school students to be received by Warden Preston E. Thomas in his office at Ohio State Penitentiary since the fire more than a year ago, were the 39 boys of the Casie Torch club of Central Junior High school who were welcomed to his office and given a short talk Saturday morning. Later, the boys and the adults in the party, Judge Oscar Gast, Dr.

W. C. Kiser, W. E. Ormitt, principal, M. H. Baker, sponsor of the club, F. G. Rudolph of the Marion Y. M. C. A. H. L. Martin, Mrs. Elsie Martin and Mrs. Fred Warner, parents of three of the boys, were shown through the penitentiary.

Visitors are prohibited at the penitentiary on Saturdays, but a letter to the warden from John M. Warner, director of public welfare and a personal friend of Mr. Ormitt, arranged for the tour. After the tour to the penitentiary, the boys went to WAIL, broadcasting station, and were introduced over the radio by Hugh Palmer, luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. and a talk by Judge Gast preceded a trip to the state house and a visit in the senate house of representatives, governors office and supreme court. Port Columbus was the third place of interest and the boys were given plenty of time to inspect all features of the port. The trip ended in a tour of the archaeological museum at Ohio State university.

Tobin Has Own Idea of What Is Good News

What is good news to one is sometimes just grief to another, thinks C. M. Tobin, city public relief officer.

Because of a shortage of relief money, the commissioner has been compelled to watch closely the various angles of relief work. Just as soon as one of his "regular customers" obtains a job and gets his first pay, he is removed from the list.

Recently the commissioner was seated in his office in the city hall trying to figure out how to make $100 buy $30 worth of groceries, when one of his "regular customers" appeared at the door, his face beaming and giving all the signs of one whose cup of joy was running over.

Such bursts of joy are not common in the commissioner's office and immediately it flashed through his mind that he was about to lose another "regular" because in the officer's mind, but one happening could produce such joy—the landing of a job.

His hopes were further strengthened when the visitor shouted, "I got good news for you, Mr. Tobin."

"Well, let's have it," the commissioner said, scarcely able to restrain himself as he got out the first preparatory to removing another "regular."

"We've got twins," gurgled the happy father. "They came last night. Isn't that fine?"

Last year 131 babies, the greatest number in the history of the institution, were born at the hospital.

"This is as it should be," Miss Pleasant said. "Give the newborn a fair chance of life by providing them the best of care for at least the first few days," she urged.

City hospital is not without its troubles. Chief among these, outlined by Miss Pleasant, are the financial worries. Many persons do not understand how the hospital in Marion is financed. Although many persons do know that the cost of running the hospital for a year is more than $50,000, not many realize that the taxpayer does not carry the heaviest part of this expense. Since all receipts of the hospital revert to the general fund of the city, a total of $50,000 or more must be appropriated each year to finance its activities. However, approximately $40,000 of this amount gets into the city treasury from the pockets of patients at the institution, leaving only $10,000 for the taxpayers to make up.

Should this figure appear large, which it is not in comparison with other institutions in the country, the amount of charity work thrust on the hospital should be considered. Miss Pleasant points out. At times last year, half the total patients in the hospital were charity cases from which no fee could be obtained. Their hospitalization must be financed by the taxpayer, as the institution cannot refuse to admit patients in critical condition.

1,018 Patients

Another problem of hospitals is to interest the general public in hospitalization and its importance. Too many parents are not interested in hospitals until a close relative is taken critically ill or injured. Not until then do they realize the importance of having necessary equipment in a hospital.

Last year, City Hospital admitted 1,018 patients, who were given hospitalization at an average daily cost of $4.93 each, or $108 less than the actual cost of this service. This average daily expense for each patient is $6.01. As a part of its service, the hospital served 20,611 meals. The institution has between 45 and 50 beds.

Marion's hospital is one of 6,719 in United States which Tuesday are observing National Hospital day. Radio programs and newspaper publicity will tell the story of the hospital in every section of the country.

Light refreshments will be served hospital visitors. Tuesday afternoon by the Women's board. Mothers whose babies were born in the hospital during the last 12 months are invited to visit the hospital Tuesday.

Officers and department heads of the institution, which operates under the departmental head of Safety Director T. E. Sumanation, include Miss Mary E. Pleasant, superintendent; Miss Geneva L. L. at assistant superintendent; Miss Edith S. at clinical supervisor; Miss Elsie at the X-ray and laboratory technician; and Miss Edna L. at the nurse-in-charge.

Many improvements during the year have been made possible by the Women's Board of the hospital. The board equipped a new room for developing X-ray pictures, purchased a water heater, redecorated the reception room, and contributed liberally toward the purchase of furniture to decorate the waiting room. Miss Pleasant said.

The Marion Association of Mothers also has contributed toward the purchase of equipment. The institution is indebted to the Kunk's Daughters, who donated a chest ward. Miss Pleasant said. She is As much more and what she has done for the Kunk's Daughters have

UNITES AT GALION

Mrs. John Brophy, 74, Passes Away at Kenton.

GALION, May 11.—The body of Mrs. John Brophy, 74, was brought to this city Saturday evening from Kenton where she passed away on Saturday. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. with burial in Fairview cemetery. Brophy was the cause of the death.

Secretary-Manager of Stores Honored at State Convention

Arthur S. Zachman, at 24, is soon to be anybody ahead of the individual retail grocer in this country in this time and place.

The American Grocer magazine, official grocer's magazine, said of the report: "The report of the Marion association should stimulate others to do likewise. Of course the success of any association depends on the secretary and his ability to secure and hold interest and support of the members."

The speaker said: "If you will get the idea and the thought, the action, forward march like that"

HELPS UNTIE BONDS

Probably the most prominent attorney now practicing in Marion is George A. Bartlett (above), former district court judge of Washoe county, Nev. He has rendered decisions on divorces for 12 years and recently expressed his views on divorce in a book entitled "Men, Women and Conflict." Now he acts as an attorney.

CARE ESSENTIAL IN BUYING VEGETABLES

Various Points To Be Considered in Selection: Experience Is Best Teacher.

Biggest doesn't always mean best in foods, especially vegetables. But there isn't any one general rule, and so the careful shopper has to learn by experience when to choose small or large items that will be satisfactory.

Apples, for example. The huge ones are handsome and tempting but are better as decoration than food. They are not exactly suitable for serving whole and raw to a hungry boy. A baker apple of large size is a meal in itself. But the medium-size apples fit any purpose.

Or oranges. Large oranges are desirable for salad, for they are easier to peel, and the sections of pulp are more attractive if of good size. But for juice, the small oranges are preferable, as they are more convenient to squeeze.

As a general rule, the watery vegetables should be heavy. Lettuce, asparagus, rhubarb, that feels light for size, is likely to be dry, watery and unpalatable. Heavy, dense in watery vegetables is an indication of freshness and solid texture.

But the exceptions are the watery vegetables, with many seeds, such as cucumbers, eggplant, tomatoes, and the like. These are the ones which give the weight. It is safer to buy medium-size vegetables in this group.

Eggs of course should be heavy for their size. They evaporate slowly, and the older they are the lighter they grow. Weight is therefore an indication of freshness in an egg.

Some foods too bulk heavily in weight because of their water content. Broccoli, with its huge thick stems which have to be discarded is a case in point. Though generally sold by the pound more than half is inedible, since only the bunch of flowerets at the tip are cooked.

Bananas May Be Prepared Many Ways for Table

Banana, a generally popular fruit, has not yet come into its own in the opinion of a group of grocers. With many of the fruits on hand, little thought is given to the preparation of the banana in different ways. The most important element in the banana, grocers declare, is the banana. When used with milk, its carbohydrate content makes an ideally balanced ration. When combined with other fresh fruits and the leafy vegetables, it supplies the needed calories. Bananas have a place in the menu of virtually every meal and can be prepared and served in many tempting ways. For breakfast the fresh ripe fruit may be eaten sliced in milk or cream, with or without cereals. Partially ripe, it may be cooked in many ways and served as a vegetable. In the tropics it is often so used and makes an excellent substitute for the potato. As an entree, bananas are especially pleasing. To fruit cocktails and the fruit salads, ripe bananas give not only wholesome flavor but substantial food value, while for desserts, it may be served in many attractive ways. Examples are in gelatine custard, ice cream, shortcake and in pie. Bananas sliced with other fruits especially with apples, oranges or grapefruit, make a very desirable and appetizing dish. As a fresh fruit, eaten alone, or in combination with other fruits and for salads and dessert, the sugary ripe banana should always be used. The banana also fills an important place in the laborer's dinner pail, the children's lunch box and the picnic hamper, because of the ease with which it may be handled and preserved.

FOUR BANDS TO TAKE PART

Parade of Serv-U-Wel Grocers Will Be Held Tuesday Night

The Serv-U-Wel grocers will start marching in their annual parade at 7:30 p. m. The line of march will be east on Center street from Park boulevard to Baker street, south on Baker to Church street and west on Church street to Harding high school, where the marchers will disband. The grocers and clerks in the association will march wearing white aprons and caps. All grocers, wholesale dealers, manufacturers, bakers, dairymen and others who have any part in the celebration will have decorated trucks in the parade.

Thousands of samples will be thrown out along the line of parade both from a large Serv-U-Wel sample truck and from the manufacturers' floats. A truck load of shopping bags filled with groceries will be given away. Frank R. McDaniels is general chairman of the parade committee. A. W. Somerlot is chairman of music, assisted by M. W. Kline. The publicity is in charge of Ray A. Reidenbaugh, chairman. George Smith and John Abbott.

MAKING POPCORN POP When popcorn fails to pop as desired, cover with cold water before it is popped and let soak for 15 minutes. Drain and pop and you will be delighted with the results.

OPEN AT BOTTOM Open cans of asparagus at the bottom so that the asparagus can be pulled out by the ends and the soft tips will not be injured.

PRICES SHOW DROP IN YEAR

Cost of Living Lower in 1931. Serv-U-Wel Anniversary Ads Show.

No more interesting proof of lower food prices can be found than a comparison of the present Serv-U-Wel prices with those which prevailed a year ago.

A comparison of the prices being quoted today with those in Serv-U-Wel advertisements a year ago when that group of stores celebrated their second anniversary as an organization shows an average decrease of approximately 15 per cent.

While eggs and butter lead in the list of cheaper groceries, other food products show a sharp decline from last year.

As an anniversary special last year, Serv-U-Wel stores were offering butter at 41 cents a pound. Today the regular price is being quoted between 25 and 30 cents. Eggs last year were selling at from 24 to 30 cents a dozen. Prices now are quoted at from 15 to 20 cents a dozen.

California peaches, offered as an anniversary special last year at two cans for 65 cents, can now be bought at two cans for 47 cents. Pineapple which sold last year at two cans for 63 cents is selling today at two cans for 45 cents.

Salmon also shows a sharp drop in price. The same quality which last year was being offered at two cans for 45 cents is now selling at two cans for 29 cents. A 2 1/2 pound sack of flour which was included in the anniversary special, last year at 80 cents is selling regularly today at 60 cents.

Breakfast foods are but little cheaper than last year. Cereals are being offered at a trifle under the prices a year ago. Sugar prices have also remained about the same. Coffee has shown a drop of about six cents a pound from the prevailing prices of last year.

Real Skill Is Required To Prepare Simple Foods

FINE cooking is recognized in the high quality of simple foods. Anybody can assemble the flashy ingredients, such as whipped cream, colored jellies, fancy forms of cakes to make a splendid showing. But it takes real skill, and a sensitivity to flavor blends, to prepare simple foods superlatively well.

Good French cooks will turn out a salad that is relished even by confirmed foes of salad. So it is probable that those who don't eat salad regularly are those who have never known what good salad tastes like. For it is highly important that a salad be included in the diet—at least once a day, and twice a day will do no harm. The raw greens, combined with oil and acid, have a highly beneficial effect on the digestive system, and children should be encouraged to form the salad habit early.

Best Materials Needed
First—use the best oil and acid. High-grade olive oil imparts a delightful flavor to salad, but it should be only the best. Second, rate olive oil in glass bottles where it is exposed to sunlight, or in a warm place, will turn rancid. Sometimes those who have declared a dislike of olive oil discover that they have not known the best quality, which is delightful. There is nothing dietetically wrong with other vegetable oils like peanut and cottonseed oil, which are much cheaper than olive oil. But they have no flavor. Their food value is as good as olive oil.

As to the acid—use only the best cider vinegar, or vinegar flavored with tarragon. In the absence of

MEMORY IS POOR RECORD FOR RECIPES

Kitchen Should Have Definite Place for Filing Outfit.

"Wish I could remember the good recipes I read. Yes, I do clip them often. But what's the use? I can't ever find them when I need them." Thus complained a young housekeeper, who was really quite anxious to enlarge her cooking repertoire.

Remembering recipes is, rather, a useless effort. Quantities must be remembered accurately, and a mistake of memory may mean a ruined dish. Much simpler to devise a scheme of keeping the written recipes in a convenient form.

To begin with, there should be a definite space in the kitchen for keeping recipe books or boxes. A shelf over the preparing table will make it easy to place and withdraw recipes. No, not a table drawer, unless it's one deep enough to hold a 3 by 5 card cabinet.

A cardboard or wooden box, with alphabetical guides printed with the classifications of cookery, is easy enough for anyone to begin. In fact, ready-made ones can be bought, with the tabs already marked. If clipped recipes are pasted on a card as soon as cut, and filed in their proper place, they are sure to come in handy at the right moment. Even that hurriedly scrawled recipe brought back from a bridge luncheon can be pasted on a card as soon as possible, instead of being thrown in a drawer, awaiting the day when it will be neatly copied. (For it rarely ever is.)

Some housekeepers have a preference for the cookbook as against the cards, and this, too, can be quite practical. A loose-leaf book of small size—not more than 5 by 7—with thin paper fillers, on which recipes can be copied or pasted, is useful. If there's a typewriter in the household, it is easy enough to type recipes on a loose-leaf and insert in its alphabetical place. The loose-leaf books have tabs on the right-hand side, and these can be purchased, marked with cooking classifications. Or they can be marked in tiny print.

PARTY WILL FOLLOW PARADE ON TUESDAY

500 Tickets Distributed Among Grocers and Clerks for Events.

Five hundred tickets have been distributed among the grocers and clerks of the Serv-U-Well stores to admit them to a stag party to follow immediately after the parade.

George Andres, a member of the party committee, spent today visiting grocers in nearby towns with tickets for the affair. Between 350 and 500 grocers are expected.

Music for the party will be furnished by the Prospect Boys' band. Entertainment has been engaged by Mr. Andres, who is in charge of the program. D. J. Lawler is chairman of the party committee, assisted by Mr. Andres and F. J. Schuler.

Food for the lunch has been furnished by wholesalers and manufacturers.

Buying in Small Quantities Is Example of False Economy

"I HAVE discovered how to beat the game," announced Dot, cheerfully, pointing to a shelf full of small tins and packages. "Look at this bottle of olive oil, only 10 cents! And this tin of perfectly good coffee, only a quarter, when I've been paying between 40 and 45 cents all along. Package of this special bacon we like, only 25 cents. Isn't it wonderful?"

Dot has recently begun house-keeping on a tiny budget and her valiant struggles are pathetic and amusing, because she makes the usual mistakes. And it is always hitting on bright ideas that will solve the problem of how to make two and two add up five.

Buying in small quantities for economy's sake is one of the curious mistakes that so many inexperienced housekeepers make. Dot saw a package of coffee marked 25 cents, and it was the same brand for which she usually paid almost twice that sum. Had she read the label, she would have seen it marked 7 ounces. No deception on the part of dealer or manufacturer. Just an illusion on the part of Dot, who assumed that 7 ounces for 25 cents was cheaper than 16 ounces for 45 cents.

Continuing her happy dismissal of arithmetic, she believed that a 1-ounce bottle of olive oil at 10 cents was more economical than buying a pint at 70 cents. But her more mathematical husband did a little figuring and showed her that a pint of olive oil in a series of 10-cent bottles would eventually cost her $1.60.

Small quantity buying is not necessarily a bad practice. It depends on the reason. The worst reason for buying in small quantities is the attempt to be economical. It doesn't work out that way. Instead, it usually results in a loss of money. A little figuring will disclose this. When cutting hot Boston brown bread use a silk cord and cut pieces that can be cut which will crumble.

STOPS CRUMBLING.

Flavor of Rhubarb Improved by Adding Quantity of Fruit

ADD a thickly sliced, large apple to the next bunch of rhubarb cooked. It absorbs some of the excessive tart flavor tones it down pleasantly. If the rhubarb is pink, it is probably so young that it does not need peeling, but can be washed and diced as is. Of course, one must be very careful not to let any bit of the rhubarb leaf get cooked, as they are suspected of high oxalic acid content.

Strawberries Help
Strawberries added to rhubarb while cooking will also impart a very pleasant flavor, and if the strawberries are well ripened, it may reduce the amount of sugar needed.

To stew rhubarb place the diced stems in an agate saucepan, add only enough water to cover the bottom and prevent burning (about half a cupful should do) and cook over a very low flame for about twenty to thirty minutes. Then add sugar to taste—from one to three cupfuls, depending on the amount of rhubarb cooked. Mix so that sugar dissolves and remove from stove. Set aside to cool.

Hot Rhubarb Pudding
3 cups cooked rhubarb, sweetened.
1 egg.
dash of salt.
1 cup flour.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
1/4 tablespoon salt.
2 tablespoons butter.

STRAWBERRY FLAVOR DISAPPEARS EASILY

Must Be Preserved Carefully in Preparation for Serving.

It's a fleeting thing—the delicate flavor of strawberries, and has to be cherished carefully. To enjoy them in their peak of perfection, one has to live somewhere near a strawberry patch, and eat the ripe, raw strawberry a few minutes after picking. This, however, is a luxury reserved only for country dwellers. Those who depend on city markets can do their best by choosing carefully.

Strawberries should be a bright, even red, with no white or green spots. They should look clean—and that includes the box. Obviously, a stained box contains broken, over-ripe berries—not so good. They should have their caps on, too. Indeed, strawberry lovers insist that the only way to eat strawberries, even at an elegant formal table, is to bite them off their caps. The fresh strawberries are washed free of sand (and, by the way, the best strawberries are the least sandy) and then drained and served. Pile in individual dessert plates, accompanied by powdered sugar, in case the berries need additional sweetening.

If, for some reason, a box of well-flavored berries are not perfect enough in appearance to serve whole, their flavor may still be rescued for service. Fresh berries cut up into small sections, and blended with whipped cream, or served in their own juice, may be added to plain sponge cake, or ice cream, or junket, or custard.

It is a mistake to cook strawberries—with the exception, of course, of preserves. Cooking changes their flavor and toughens their texture.

A delicious frosting for cake is to mix 2 cups of fresh diced strawberries with 1/2 cup of sweet butter and 2 cups of confectioner's sugar. First cream butter and sugar together and then fold in the diced strawberries carefully, so that they remain in pieces, and are not mashed. Spread on shortcake.

New Bread Offered by Serv-U-Well Stores

Among the merchandise of five Marion bakeries handled in Serv-U-Well stores is the new twist bread offered by the Union bakery. The bread is made under a new formula and the loaf has the appearance of a twist. A slogan contest with $50 in prizes is now under way to name the new bread.

Other bakeries marketing their products here through Serv-U-Well stores are the City Bakery, the Rooker bakery, the Miller bakery and Community bakery.

SUBSTITUTE FOR CREAM

One of the finest substitutes for cream in coffee may be made by beating up the yolk of an egg with a teaspoon of sugar and a very little water; divide it among the cups before pouring in the hot coffee.

KEEP BOTTLES CLEAN

Always wash the outside of a milk bottle before putting it into the refrigerator. It may have collected a few ants or dirt while it was on the stoop and the extra precaution will be found well worth while.

OIL IS GOOD CLEANER

To clean leather upholstery, rub it with a cloth dipped in olive oil. This cleans and softens it and makes the leather more pliable. Wipe dry and polish with a clean soft cloth.

Healthful Greens Can Be Made Pleasing to Taste

"COOK it just like spinach," is the suggestion of the foreign greengrocer when one pokes curiously among the numerous green vegetables on display. The foreign repertoire of green vegetables is rather more extensive than our own. Which explains why one so often really enjoys a dish that looks spinach, as served in French and Italian dining places. It probably isn't spinach, but something dietetically quite as good.

When cooked, a lot of the leafy vegetables look the same. Dandelion, radish and turnip tops, mustard greens, chard. If finely chopped, even the cooked salad greens, like escarole, chicory, large lettuce leaves, resemble spinach in appearance, though not in flavor.

Important in Diet
All of these leafy greens are fine roughage for spring, and should be used in abundance, especially if children are served. The perennial objection to spinach is largely psychological—the word has become the great food joke. As a matter of fact, spinach, yes, even genuine spinach, can be cooked so that it is more tolerable—positively pleasant.

For one thing, fresh spinach needs thorough cleaning, and that need not be an arduous job if one has the right utensils. A huge vessel full of cold water will float the spinach so that, within half an hour more or less the sand will sink to the bottom. Then lift out and give a final rinsing. (Don't pour off the water, as this will sift the sand back into the spinach again.) Place the moist leaves in a saucepan, without adding water and cook 15 to 20 minutes. Remove from fire as soon as tender, and do not overcook. All in the Seasoning

All the leafy greens can be treated the same way. First cleanse well, then cooked in the drops of water adhering to their leaves, and removed from fire quickly when tender. It is at this point that a spinach dish can be glorified or ruined. Left in the natural state, it must be admitted that these greens haven't a flavor that's particularly thrilling. However, a few deft touches can do a lot to rescue plain greens from a lowly state.

It's all in the sauce or accessory seasoning. When the spinach or whatever other leafy green is used, cooked and chopped, mix it with another prepared sauce and reheat.

A peppery sauce of a chopped onion or some chives lightly fried in butter, seasoned with salt, pepper and a dash of nutmeg is pleasing. If some water has accumulated in the spinach despite draining, don't throw it away. It contains valuable mineral salts. But spinach cannot, under any circumstances, be served in a watery state. So the additional sauce can be thickened by adding bread crumbs or a spoonful of flour, then all reheated together.

Plain spinach, seasoned with salt, pepper, thickened with a little flour or bread crumbs, then reheated for a moment with thick sweet cream, will impart a delightful flavor. Chopped egg yolks will improve color and flavor.

DAY OF OVERSIZE KITCHEN IS PAST

Three-Foot Aisle, No More. No Less, Is Modern Plan.

"KEEP a three-foot aisle in the kitchen, no more, no less, and you can keep it convenient," announced a housewife, who having made over three kitchens in as many years, is by way of being an authority on the subject. "Men who build kitchens in houses or apartments usually make one of two mistakes. Either they have plenty of room—as in a country house—and there's a huge vacant space in the middle of the kitchen resulting in thousands of waste steps for the worker. Or, having to make a kitchen out of left-over bits of space in an apartment, they crowd equipment in it and leave no room for the worker to wedge herself in."

We have departed from the old idea of a "roomy" kitchen. Big, square kitchens were excellent in the days when they were also used as living room. But nowadays, even the maids don't want to sit in a rocker in the kitchen when work is done. Reasonably enough, anyone who works in a kitchen is anxious to get away from it all when work is finished. So there's no need for a rocker or anything beyond the working equipment for preparing meals.

That consists of six objects—sink, stove, refrigerator, work table, cupboard, chair. They may be large units or small, depending on the size of the family. There is no reason why these pieces should be scattered around a room. They can be ranged together closely. The nearer they are to each other, the fewer the steps to be taken toward any of them.

In the six-by-eight kitchen all this equipment can be placed on either wall that there is a three-foot aisle in between, and that's plenty. With this comfortable minimum, almost everything is within arm's reach. If there isn't sufficient floor space for the right-sized cupboard, extra shelves can be built overhead. And narrow shelves to hold only one row of anything will save fuss of reaching, and of needless cleaning.

NAUTICAL, BUT NICE

And now Dame Fashion has definitely gone Marine, as witness in these engaging ensembles. Costume at left is of red and white Irish linen, worn with white kid opera pumps and a linen hat button-holed at the edges in red. At right is the colorful pajama costume also in Irish linen, with white trousers button-holed to red blouse. A large floppy linen hat in red completes the costume.

TEN CHURCHES FIRED BY MOB

Action Taken To Quell Uprising in Spanish Capital.

By The Associated Press. MADRID, May 11.—Defiant of all efforts to restore order, mobs burned 10 Catholic churches and attacking numerous persons in anti-church demonstrations.

Republican government, which had called for martial law and threatened that it would maintain order by force if necessary, before 4 p. m. today, sent cavalry and infantry to quell the rioting on Com. plaza and began taking the work of the civil guards, who showed force, with its machine guns, street warfare, the mob's attempt to attack on the institutions.

At about 10 a. m. in emergency session the parliament met in session to discuss the situation was reported as extremely grave.

Berenguer, former king, was released from prison only last Saturday, and he was charged with the government's leniency in releasing him.

Communists tried to promote a general strike today morning and afternoon, but they were opposed by the trades unions, which they succeeded in paralyzing and disorganizing business in general.

As the morning wore on there were few fights, most of them being between Communist orators, talking of a general strike, and Republicans who accused them of trying to discredit the new regime.

Three Known Killed.

At least three are known to have been killed and perhaps a score seriously injured.

A monarchist was beaten to death by a mob in the Puerto del Sol last night. Another man who was wounded by machine gun bullets yesterday afternoon died this morning. Officers of the monarchist newspaper, A. B. C. suspended yesterday, were under guard today and its publisher was in jail. The most serious riot yesterday surged about the A. B. C. building.

There was an atmosphere of great uneasiness today and excitement among the people was growing.

King Sees Light as Cataract is Taken from Eye

PURCHASE, N. Y., May 11.—King Prajadhipok of Siam was resting at Ophir hall today, after a successful operation for the removal of a cataract from his left eye yesterday.

"I see the light," he remarked immediately after the operation. He was conscious of every detail of his operation, because only local anesthetics were used. Three stitches were taken.

The king, who traveled half-way around the globe to receive surgical attention, was asked of his outcome.

The doctors' bulletin was called to his country. It read: "The cataract has been successfully removed from the king's left eye. No complication was found in the operation, and we have every reason to believe that the result will be favorable. The king is suffering no pain."

It was signed by Drs. John M. Wheeler, Thomas H. Johnson, Robert A. Cooke and Hugh S. McKewen.

Dr. Iago Galdston, executive secretary of the medical information bureau of the New York academy of science, who attended the operation, said, however, that the wound would heal in about a week and the bandages would be removed in about 10 days.

"By virtue of this operation it is expected the king will, with the aid of glasses, have normal, or near normal vision," he added. "The king will of course be obliged to wear spectacles with a special glass lens in front of his left eye to take the place of the clouded eye lens which was removed."

He was born July 22, 1879 in Martel the son of William Deithas and Clara Thompson Green.

Surviving are the father, residing at 175 John street and two brothers, E. C. Green of 864 Davis street and Fay Green at 482 Wilson avenue. His mother died Sept. 26, last year.

The body was removed to the Hess, Markert & Axe funeral home, 239 East Church street. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

RAILROAD VETERAN PASSES AWAY HERE

John B. Navin, Former Erie Employee, Dies at Age of 72.

John B. Navin, 72, retired Erie railroad employee died today at 10:45 a. m. at his home at 390 West Columbia street. Organic heart trouble of which he had been ailing for the last year, caused his death. He had been bedfast a month.

Mr. Navin was retired from the Erie three years ago after serving 36 years. At the time of his retirement he was foreman of the shop tracks. He was born Dec. 21, 1858 in Marion county.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Navin, two children, Mrs. Donald Zink of Dayton and John M. Navin of Columbus, the grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters: William Navin of Mechanicsburg, James Navin and Edward Navin of Marion, Mrs. Sarah Sweeney, Mrs. Nell Irvin and Mrs. Mary Cusic of Marion and Miss Margaret Navin of Detroit. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

LEGION MEMBERS TO GET HONOR AWARDS

Five of Bird-McGinnis Post To Receive Stars at Meeting.

Presentation of honor stars to five members of Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, American Legion, will be made Tuesday night by Gene Hill, vice commander of the eleventh district of the legion, it was announced today by Dr. F. L. Thomas, chairman of the program committee.

The honor stars are given each member who enrolls seven new members in the 40 and 50 unit of the legion.

Dr. F. L. Mann is scheduled to address the post briefly.

Plans for the post to attend Trinity Baptist church May 24 to hear a Memorial day sermon by Rev. Lawrence A. Wood probably will be completed Tuesday night. The sermon has been prepared for the G. A. R. and the Legion has been invited to attend.

Arrangements for members of the post to attend a district conference next Sunday in Mt. Gilead will be made.

COMMUNITY DRIVE MAJORS APPOINTED

Head of Women's Division for Campaign Selects Assistants.

Organization of Community Fund workers for the 1931 drive was a step nearer completion today when Mrs. H. K. Mouser, colonel of the women's territorial division, announced the names of four majors who will act as her right-hand workers in the drive.

The majors are Mrs. Carl W. Schell, Mrs. Walter Hane, Miss Mary Kelly and Mrs. James R. Smith.

Mrs. Mouser called the majors to a meeting at noon today to lay plans for naming team captains and general plans of procedure. Each major is in charge of five captains, who in turn are in charge of five workers each.

ASSEMBLY MEETS TO CONSIDER TAX PLAN

Will Revise Revenue Laws in Accordance with Classification Amendment.

By The Associated Press. COLUMBUS, O., May 11.—With a new tax program ready for its consideration, the Ohio legislature reconvenes tonight after a month's recess. The program was drawn up by the joint legislative taxation committee which was named to recommend new revenue laws in accordance with the classification amendment adopted by the voters a year ago.

The committee's report to be presented to the assembly tomorrow, includes proposals for taxing all intangibles, increasing the levies on motor cars, and taxing cigarettes and tobacco.

Besides taxation, the legislature also will consider the general appropriation bill, a new mining code, amendments to the election laws and other special measures. During an unforeseen lull in the revenue problem, the legislature probably will complete their work within a month.

Centennial Observance Opens; 1,519 at Services

Dr. John L. Hillman Gives Sermons on Homecoming Day at Epworth M. E. Church; Former Ministers and Wives Will Be Guests at Banquet.

Homecoming day at Epworth church opening the centennial celebration of Methodism in Marion, drew 1,519 persons to the Sunday school service yesterday and filled the church auditorium to capacity yesterday morning and night to hear Dr. John L. Hillman, pastor 40 years ago and now president of Simpson college at Indianola, Ia.

Twenty-six members received into the church at the close of the morning worship service and of Dr. Hillman's sermon based on Hebrews 3:1, "Consider Christ Jesus." "Christ is the one supreme revelation of God," he said. "By His sympathy, His compassion, His power of forgiveness, Christ becomes unique and incomparable among men."

Visitors were present from Columbus, Dayton, Richmond, Cleveland, Youngstown, Cleveland, Westerville, Waldo, Delaware, Pittsburgh, Wilmington, Lima and Newark.

At 4 p. m. a short service was held at the Methodist burial lot in Marion cemetery. Dr. Hillman offered prayer and Dr. C. E. Turley, pastor of Epworth and host to the centennial program, read the scripture and announced the names of those buried on the lot.

Former pastors of Methodist churches buried in the plot are Rev. Thomas Parker, Rev. Jeremiah Hill, Rev. George J. Lee, Rev. James N. Fribble, Rev. Stewart C. Wright and infant Larnestine Hillman. These graves and those of Rev. W. D. Lawrence and Rev. Isaac Newton were decorated with flowers.

The Epworth League reunion drew an attendance of nearly 150 young people. Edward Sloan, president of the senior league, presided. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kauble and Mrs. Stella Leach spoke. The Sunday school hour Dr. N. D. Creamer of Westerville offered the opening prayer and the Epworth orchestra directed by William Dowler, played. A special number was sung by the Epworth Men's chorus directed by Knox Dunlop.

Dr. Hillman preached at 7:30 p. m. from the text, Acts 1:23, "That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place." Tonight at 8 the former pastors and their wives and former district superintendents and their wives will be guests of Epworth at a dinner at Hotel Harding. A service will be held at the church at 7:30 at which the former pastors will speak and Dr. H. E. Armistead, district superintendent will preside.

DRY CHIEF'S NEW COUNCIL ASSAILED

Another To Investigate "Bed-Time Story" of Prohibition, Wet Leader Says.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 11.—Prohibition Director Woodcock's new research advisory council today was termed just another commission which will "investigate the bed-time story" known as national prohibition.

In a statement, President Henry H. Curran of the Association against the Prohibition amendment said he thought the Wickersham commission already had done the job Woodcock planned for the council.

"Life in Washington still seems to be just one new commission after another," Curran said.

"The Woodcock commission's personnel appears to be loaded down with eminence, but what is Woodcock up to in graduate schools of the country? A little more prohibition propaganda paid for by taxpayers who don't believe in prohibition?"

Woodcock announced formation of the council in a statement from his office here. He is on the Pacific coast. The announcement said the council, comprising prominent educators, "would ascertain the truth regarding the operation of the Eighteenth amendment" from sociological and economic viewpoints.

The council will seek "facts," the prohibition director said, in its research in graduate schools of the country. The group will meet here the latter part of this month, and Woodcock suggested it determine, among other things, the effect of the Eighteenth amendment on juvenile drinking and delinquency.

MRS. HUNTER DIES

Illness of Three Weeks Claims Carey Woman.

CAREY, May 11.—Mrs. Minerva Ann Hunter, lifelong Wyandot county resident and widow of C. F. Hunter, died at her home here this morning. An illness of three weeks with paralysis caused her death.

Funeral services will be held in the Bristol-Kear funeral home Wednesday afternoon. Burial will be made in St. Paul cemetery.

Mrs. Hunter was born in Salem township Sept. 30, 1854. Surviving are five children, Charles of Carey, Harry of Columbus, Mrs. Bert Snyder of Carey and Nora Hunter at home and one brother, Jacob Yentzer of Salem township.

Death Toll Now Seven in School Bus Tragedy

MERCER, Calif., May 11.—The toll of a school bus-train crash here Thursday had mounted to seven today with the death of Jean Cakes, 7, a second grade pupil. An inquest was to be held tonight.

Robber Seeks Patent on Theft-Proof Lock

By The Associated Press. SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Calif., May 11.—The men with the dearest fingers and sharpest ears in San Quentin were agreed today, Harold Marks, San Diego, Calif., robber serving a long term here, had perfected a theft proof lock.

Marks' device is a key and dial combination rolled into one. The combination is set for a series of words instead of numbers and the key cannot be inserted until the proper words have been spelled. Revolving discs prevent picking.

Professional locksmiths and San Quentin prisoners alike were baffled. Marks has sent the lock to Washington for patenting.

PUBLISHER DIES

Walter A. Strong of Chicago Daily News Stricken Suddenly.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Stricken with heart disease, Walter A. Strong, 67-year-old publisher of the Chicago Daily News, died suddenly yesterday, shortly after playing a round of golf with his son, John. Death occurred in his home in suburban Winnetka while he was preparing to join the members of his family at dinner.

Mr. Strong's nine-year-old daughter, Anne, found him outstretched on the floor of his bedroom. Believing he had fainted, she hurried to her mother for help, and Mrs. Strong, assisted by her sons, Walter, Jr., and John, lifted him to his bed. He was dead, however, when physicians arrived.

Mr. Strong's rise to the head of the Daily News organization was both steady and rapid. Always regarded as a keen newspaper worker, he began his career when he started selling newspapers for the News.

PLANE CRASH KILLS PILOT, PASSENGER

Spectators Helpless To Aid Ohio Couple From Flaming Craft.

By The Associated Press. POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., May 11.—While a crowd of a half hundred persons looked on, helpless, a man and a girl burned to death after their airplane crashed in a wheat field at Masson City, near here, yesterday.

The dead were Harold Morrow, 35, Youngstown, O., pilot, and Miss Frances Miner, 21, Hanover, O.

The plane was forced down near Masson City Saturday night, and Morrow and Miss Miner stayed at a boarding house until yesterday afternoon. Morrow is said to have told residents of Masson City that they were enroute from Dayton to Columbus, O., but lost their way.

The pilot made two trial flights over the wheat field yesterday afternoon before landing to take Miss Miner aboard. The plane, a monoplane, was soaring at about 100 feet, when the crowd in the field saw it suddenly plunge to earth and burst into flames.

Relatives of Morrow and Miss Miner are enroute to claim the bodies.
